

ITALIAN JOB...

THE ITALIAN National Tourist Board and the Sicilian Tourist Board, in cooperation with Typically Italian, organised an educational fam for eight agents to South East Sicily. During their four-day tour, they had the opportunity to discover the many attractions this area is famous for including its Baroque architecture, lively art cities, Mount Etna and exceptional food and wine. Agents flew out on the new direct flight from London-Southend to Catania in Sicily and pictured is, from the left: Zoe Davis from Air Malta; Natalie Bishop, Broadland Travel; Stephanie Rolph, Premier Travel; Annette Ross of Travelstop; Ilenia Cocco of the Italian Tourist Board; Mariam Sajjad from Typically Italian; Pamela Payn, Westway Travel; Jade Konnoris, Chelmsford Star Coop Travel; Mandy Gostling, Travel Norwich Airport; and Julie Croucher from Travel with Jules. The agents received their surprise itinerary at check-in – you can find out more about their Sicilian adventures in our Italy feature, which will be out on February 8.
